Programme Educational Objectives (PEO’s)

- In depth and research based knowledge in design engineering to recognize, inquire, analyse and solve complex engineering design problems.

- The competencies to work well in local and international team environments and to be effective written and oral communicators.

- The ability to recognize the importance of, and engage in life-long learning through self study, continuing education, learning from mistakes etc.

- Ability to undertake research in emerging areas and to adapt oneself to changing needs of the society considering sustainability as well as societal, environmental and public health aspects.