Programme Educational Objectives (PEOs)

The Programme Educational Objectives of the M.E. Industrial Metallurgy are given below:

I) Effective performance in core areas of Metallurgy and Materials Engineering including Industry, Research and Academia

II) Preparation for pursuing higher studies and career in research

III) Solving industrial problems as well to develop cost effective and environmental friendly technologies for sustainable development.