Graduating students of Robotics and Automation Engineering from PSG College of Technology will have the ability to:

PSO1: Design, develop and maintain robotics and automation systems for variety of applications.

PSO2: Undertake higher education, research and entrepreneurship in the field of automation and robotics.