Programme Educational Objectives (PEOs)

Over a few years after graduation, our graduates would have

I. Established themselves as textile technology professionals in various private and public sectors involved in the manufacturing of fibre, yarns, fabrics and garments

II. Recognition for creative thinking and smart performance in applying the knowledge of science and technology under the body of textiles for tackling contemporary issues

III. Art of professional skills, adapt to the changing trends, state-of-the-art technologies and engage in continuous learning, involve in R&D and interdisciplinary activities towards sustainable improvement

IV. A reputation for solving real world problems in a professional, ethical and safe manner in order to benefit organizations and society at large